All tax deductible gifts to Nexus Multicultural Arts Centre support a range of cultural activities, which underpin our prime objectives.

Nexus is a contemporary arts organisation based in South Australia generating positive social outcomes by promoting understanding, acceptance and respect, celebrating difference and diversity through the arts. We advocate for, facilitate the development of, and showcase contemporary arts, artists and communities of diverse cultures, to enrich the expression and image of our multicultural Australia.

Our vision is to be Australia's pre-eminent multicultural arts centre. Our exhibitions, performances and events are designed to attract a wide audience within South Australia and Australia. Parts of our program focus on attracting target audiences such as new migrants, youth, established CALD communities, academics and professional artists.

Nexus was established in 1984 and incorporated in 1985 to:

- Produce and showcase multicultural arts for audiences;
- Connect diverse communities and bring them into the mainstream;
- Present a unique and vibrant program of exhibitions, world music and dance concerts, artist and writing residencies, seminars, forums and interactive workshops.

A gift to Nexus not only supports our mission of achieving community harmony by nurturing multicultural arts, but also provides you with the opportunity of receiving the benefit of tax deductibility for your donations.

To make a tax-deductible donation, you only need to fill in and post back the enclosed form.

Thank you for your anticipated support of Nexus.
